Insurgents Only 15 Miles

MARTIAL LAW IS DECREED IN SPAIN

Same Spirit Which Prevailed At Defense Of Madrid Seen At Barcelona

(BULLETIN)

(International News Service)
LÉRIDA, Jan. 23.—Spanish insurgent troops are approaching Martorell, only 17 miles from Barcelona, it was reported here today.

BARCELONA, Jan. 23.—A week of purgatory, of dread and death and travail, broke upon Barcelona's hungry but fighting 2,000,000
today as insurgent guns
thundered in the hills only 15 miles off and big Italian and German airplanes came again and again to shatter scores of lives.

Martial law, with extremely drastic provisions, was declared for all government territory after an all-night meeting of Premier Juan Negre's council, and women, as well as men were called to bolster the "iron ring" encircling Barcelona.

Martial Law Prevails

The martial law decree applies to Madrid and all southeastern Spain, as well as Catalonia, through which five insurgent armies are striding with but minor setbacks.
There appears to be no danger,
however, that Barcelona might be taken for at least a week, and torrential reports that the government is contemplating moving the capital

PA NEW OBSERVES

Enjoying the icy weather in old fashioned style, several small boys took a ride in a bob sled fastened to the rear of an Amishman's cart on Wallace avenue Saturday afternoon. The fact that the countryman had the sled filled with market
produce mattered little to the lads and many passersby stopped to watch the fun.

Buses made the first trips over the Croton avenue route on Sunday, replacing the street cars which have been operating for forty years or more.

Valentine day is coming on apace.
There seems to be a lot of interest in the coming occasion even this far removed from the actual date.

Youngsters in many parts of the city were busy on Saturday fashioning snowmen, it is evident from the appearance of properties around town. Some good work was done by the children in some of the efforts.

Skating seems to be popular with a considerable number of boys and girls here, if the number seen carrying skis is any criterion.

On the windows of the Lincoln school, in plain view from Long avenue, are fastened a number of red hearts pierced with cupid's dart.
Seems as if these school children are among the vanguard of those who are looking forward to St. Valentine's Day, several weeks hence.

The name of J. Lamont Hughes, secretary of the Department of Highways, now appears at the top

Internal Discontent In Germany Is Rumored

By CHARLES A. SMITH
International News Service Staff

LONDON, Jan. 23.—Confidential advice concerning alleged internal discontent in Germany reached diplomatic circles in London today,
arousing fears that Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler may be compelled to abandon his intended orderly program of expansion in favor of some desperate outside coup.

The rumors had repercussions throughout Europe. Virtually all stock markets were weak. German bonds slid from two to five points
on various exchanges.

Add to Border Guard
In Switzerland, the government of the canton of St. Gall increased its border guard by an extra detachment of 100 police because of "news from the eastern frontier". Reports of unrest and troop movements in Austria were denied in Berlin, but were believed responsible for the Swiss preparedness measure. Widespread rumors of actual Swiss mobilization were officially discounted

in Berne.

Some inkling of the ominous advice received in Whitehall trickled
down to the financial district, accounting for the attack on market-nerves which caused heavy losses
in all international issues.

There was considerable selling on all sections of the London board.

Franco's Forces Are Not Halted

Stunning Blows Are Deliv-

SECOND MONTH OF OFFENSIVE OPENS

SAN SEBASTIAN, Spain, Jan. 23.
Never relenting for a moment,
giving the government no quarter, Generalissimo Francisco Franco and his Spanish Moors and Italians today entered the second month of the insurgent's Christmas "win the war" offensive with stunning blows
at half a dozen points in the narrowing Catalonian line.

As the sweeping advance continued along the entire front, Generalissimo Valino and the Havarese forces, skilled in mountain fighting, formed a junction with General Juan Yague's Moroccan
army corps at San Sadurni de Noya.
Fresh from his victory at Igual-ada, Gen. Valino, with the aid of Gen. Yague, will bear the brunt of the immediate offensive against Barcelona, it became evident as the purpose of Gen. Franco's broad-scale strategy unfolded.

San Sadurni, in the highly important Noya valley east of Igual-ada, is only ten miles from Martorell, which is the main goal of all Franco's current endeavors. Martorell, which is only another ten miles from Barcelona in an air-line,
stands at the junction of four highways, and is the key to Barcelona's communications.

Thirty Americans Plan To Depart From Catalonia

BARCELONA, Jan. 23.—The thirty-odd American residents of war-racked Catalonia were ordered to prepare for immediate evacuation
today as insurgent guns thundered
in the hills only 15 miles from Barcelona.

As big Italian and German bombing planes visited Barcelona again
and again on missions of death
while the women and old men of this beleaguered city bent all their efforts toward construction of "last ditch" defenses, United States consul-General Douglas Flood issued the evacuation order.

At the same time, Walter D.
Thursday, United States charge d'affaires, sent a radio to the United States destroyer Omaha now at Villefranche, France, instructing its master to proceed immediately to the port Caldesa, 20 miles north of Barcelona, to embark American refugees.

Actress Burned Seriously As She Sits In Restaurant

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—Erin O'Brien-Moore, the actress, was in the hospital today with serious burns
on the face, hands and legs suffered when a carelessly-thrown match set her pink net dress aflame.

whom she had met at the premiere
of a play, and Jack Lyons, proprietor of the restaurant where they stopped, were less seriously burned

Promise Relief From Cold Wave

Weather Bureau Says
Frigid Weather To Be
Of Short Duration

SEVERE COLD WAVE SPREAD RAPIDLY

(International News Service)
Quick relief was promised today
from the severe cold wave that spread with paralyzing suddenness
over a large part of the United States east of the Rockies yesterday.

High winds that sometimes reached gale strength carried the cold out of the Mackenzie river ba-

in the Canadian northwest, across a large section of the country.

Memorial For City Firemen

Annual Service Is Held On Sunday Night At First Baptist Church

In order to honor the memory of New Castle firemen who have passed away, the annual firemen's memorial service was held Sunday evening in the First Baptist church.
Rev. C. H. Heaton, D.D., was in charge and he delivered the memorial tribute.

There were quite a number of representatives from the New Castle
fire department at the service.
Mayor Charles E. McGrath and members of city council were also present.

The program consisted of a group
of fine musical renditions, headed by the playing of three original compositions by Garth Edmundson, organist of the church. The church choir sang a number under the leadership of John W. Owens, Mrs.
Paul D. Weller and Mrs. Stanley
Reese sang a duet.

During the service it was learned that between 1873 and January,

Fire Threatens Bolinger Home

Overheated Grate Causes
Threat Of Fire In County
Commissioner's Home

City firemen were summoned to the home of County Commissioner George H. Bolinger in Waimo on Sunday evening at 9:18 o'clock when the backwall of a grate in the living room became overheated. It was necessary to remove the baseboard to get at the seat of the cause, although no fire damage resulted, the wall being merely charred from the heat.

Firemen were called to the home
of Ralph Stone, 1129 Dewey avenue, at 6:56 p. m. Saturday, when the chimney became stopped up with soot, filling the home with smoke.
Firemen burned the soot out of the chimney.

At 6:26 p. m. Saturday, firemen were summoned to the home of Mrs.
J. M. Trimble, 135 East Moody avenue, where some clothes which had been placed in a box in the cellar took fire. The blaze had been extinguished by the time firemen arrived on the scene. A loss of around $5 was sustained.

Start Bus Line On Croton Ave.

Street Cars Are Replaced On Sunday Morning In Croton District

Buses were substituted on the Croton avenue line for street cars on Sunday morning, in accordance with announcement made during the week.

The last street car made the trip
over the line on Saturday about midnight.
The buses follow the same route that the street cars traversed. It is expected that better service will be accorded to Croton residents by the buses, than was afforded by the half hour street car service.

Streets in which the car tracks are laid, will be improved in the near future, it is expected.

night with the question of relief and the confirmation of two of Gov. Ar-

secretary of revenue, and Major Lynn G. Adams as motor police commissioner following a hearing
into their qualifications scheduled

Seniors Hear Baccalaureate

Commencement Week Activities Open For January Graduating Class

REV. W. V. McLEAN MAKES ADDRESS

Rev. William V. McLean, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, delivered a stirring, challenging baccalaureate sermon Sunday evening in the Cathedral for members of the January graduating class of senior high school and a host of their friends.

The sermon subject was "The Challenge of Life", and it was challenging through and through. For his text Rev. McLean chose John 1, verse 42: "Thou art—Thou shalt be."

"The sermon lies," declared Rev.
McLean to the seniors as he began,
"between those two statements, and is, after all, one which you will have to preach. It is a sermon which will take you a life time to preach."

Three Challenges

Three direct challenges were posed
—the first, to attain to the highest achievement possible; the second, to aspire to live the gospel of Christ,
and the third, to be "on the march"
—to know that "your journey is not only onward but upward."

The baccalaureate exercises opened commencement week activities
for the group which receives diplomas in the Cathedral Friday evening, January 27.

Although Principal Frank L. Orth
of the high school had mailed invi-

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 23.— Representative Louis Graham of Beaver, new Republican from the New Castle district, has won appointment to the important Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives.

This committee is one of the major House groups and is considered a choice assignment. Four Republican vacancies existed on the committee when the new Congress met.
Mr. Graham not only won appointment to the committee but was given the top vacancy which means that three of the four new members
already rank below him in priority.

Priority is extremely important in the workings of Congress as committee chairmen are selected in order of their priority on the political side of the committee of the party in power.

Flying Boat Disaster

(BULLETIN)

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.— Battling its way through a bitter northwest gale that churned up mountainous seas, the sturdy little oil
tanker, the Esso Baytown,
was slowly making its way to New York today with the 10 survivors of the ill-fated Imperial Airways flying boat, the Cavalier.

Originally expecting to dock about 11 a. m. for a thunderous harbor welcome such as only New York can give, the Baytown wireless shortly before 7 a. m. this morning that she would be delayed into the afternoon by the raging gale.

"Will arrive off Stapleton (Staten

vise time later," the message said.

"May reach Stapleton by 3 p. m., a later wireless from the Baytown
read.

Officials of Standard Oil company said they were unable to give more exactitude. "It may mean minute after 12 and it may mean 4 o'clock," a spokesman explained.

Meanwhile, physicians, ambulances,
police, a host of newspaper, radio and newsmen
awaited the arrival of the survivors, stashed from the icy, choppy Atlantic where they had clung to life preservers for more than 10 agon-

Baytown was that all were gradu-experience.

Governor James To Seek Economy

Retrenchment In Some Lines Seen

Unnecessary Agencies Of State Government Likely To Feel Axe

TO CONCENTRATE ON PRESSING NEEDS

By RAYMOND WILCOVE
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Jan. 23.—A retrenchment program which will cut governmental expenses to the bone is expected to be the answer of the James administration to the increasingly serious relief and fiscal situation facing the state.

All the activities in which the state is now engaged which are not absolutely essential to the carrying on of the administration will probably be laid aside, at least temporarily, and the governmental agencies and personnel supervising them done away with.

Economy To Be Observed

As the legislature prepared to reconvene tonight to consider the manifold problems which already have arisen it became increasingly apparent that Gov. Arthur H. James' economy pledge was not intended to be an idle gesture.

It was believed that Governor James would try to place the administration as far possible on a "pay-as-you-go" basis state agencies not absolutely essential to the carrying on of the state's daily activities would be abolished and their personnel dropped. Long range programs begun by the Earle administration would be scuttled in the interests of economy.

The administration, under this policy, would concentrate on the state's most pressing problems, relief, and tax reduction.

Governor James is said to feel that alongside these problems the others are not paramount, with the exception of the anthracite situation which is expected to improve as the general situation better.

To Cut Unnecessary Agencies

It was believed that Governor James has already notified the heads of his executive departments that he expects them to abolish all state agencies not absolutely needed at present and to drop their personnel. This, if carried through by all departments, would effect a saving of considerable proportions.

Pursuant to this Secretary of Forests and Waters G. Albert Stewart has abolished the post of administrative assistant and contemplates abolishing the bureau of parks and placing it under forestry. In addition, 33 members of the flood control division have been let go and Secretary Stewart said it was possible that entire flood control program of the state might be dropped.

In the department of mines, the post of deputy secretary for the bituminous region has been abolished and the entire department itself may be abolished and made a bureau in the department of labor and industry.

AUTOS DAMAGED

No persons were injured, but damage resulted to the automobiles driven by Don E. Welsh, Ellwood City, and Stanley Cyaro, 709 East Long avenue, this city, when they collided on the West Pittsburgh road at 4 a. m. Sunday, the state motor police reported today.

DEFENDERS OF BARCELONA ARE HOLDING CITY

again were denied. In spite of the numerous air raids, morale in Barcelona remains high.

Under the martial law decree the administration of justice has been taken over by the army. All meetings, including even gatherings for cinema or theatrical showings, were banned. Until this time government has been under a "state of alarm," a modified form of martial law.

The martyrdom of Barcelona brought with it the death and suffering of at least 20 air raids over the week-end. The dead must number well over 30.

"Air Blockade" Created

Creation of an "air blockade" to keep food and other supplies away from the Catalan metropolis is the obvious aim of the insurgent air forces, as most of the attacks are directed at the port area.

A direct hit was scored on the British steamer African Mariner, which arrived four days ago with a cargo of wheat, and four of her Greek seamen were killed. The British steamer Yorkbrook is sinking, and Saturday and Sunday the Seabrook and Spray and the Dover Abbey were damaged by insurgent bombs.

Dramatic dog-fights accompanied the raids, as the government's pursuit craft are quick to take the air as soon as the Italo-German air armadas show up from the Balearic Island aerodromes.

Populate Watches Sky Battles

In spite of the personal dangers involved, the populace of Barcelona invariably turns out to watch the sky struggles, and cheers rang through the streets when three Junkers and two Messerschmidt planes, all German-made, were shot down over the city.

The shortage of food notwithstanding, the same spirit which this writer observed in the successful defense of Madrid, when the insurgents hammered at the city's very gates, is evident in Barcelona.

Thousands of women and girls, clad in overalls, streamed out of factories, offices and stores, "armed" with picks and shovels in answer to the call for more aid in the construction of trenches for Barcelona's defenses.

Defense Is First

For this crucial week, all industry and business in Barcelona has been ordered suspended, save those activities necessary to arm and feed the warriors and the civil populace.

The decree issued by the Catalan parliament's economic council said: "All able-bodied men under the age of 55 years, and women volunteers between the ages of 16 and 40, are to be placed at the disposal of military authorities, together at places to be assigned to them."

Only in two spots over the week-end did the government manage to stem the insurgent advance and stage successful, albeit temporary, counterattacks. Troops of General Enrique Lister took the important town of Igualada away from the insurgents, only to see it again. Insurgent setbacks on the seacoast in the vicinity of Sitges were also reported.

On the whole, however, Barcelona's plight is summed up in a frank government communique which said briefly that the insurgents "continued their offensive and rectified their lines after severe fighting."

START SECOND TRIAL OF HINES

spectacle man with a stiff gray mustache, ascended the bench and the trial got under way.

A blue-ribbon panel of 250 talesmen had been summoned for prospective jury duty. The clerk of court began singing out their names so that they could present excuses for not wanting to serve on the jury if they so desired. The judge announced he would hear "legal excuses" only. One by one talesmen went to the bench and talked to him.

A cord of police guarded the courtroom door. In contrast to last summer's trial, when huge throngs stood outside the supreme court building, there were no crowds braving today's wintry blasts.

Both Hines and Dewey radiated confidence. Hines whispered animatedly to his lawyers while Dewey went through a card index file in businesslike manner. A large number of exhibits had been carried into the courtroom.

Leap Year boosts expenses. The extra day involves an expenditure of $200,000 for salaries in the British Royal Air Force alone.

usually small for a baccalaureate. The bitter cold kept the attendance down.

Assisting Rev. McLean throughout the service was Dr. Harold A. McCurdy, pastor of Epworth Methodist Episcopal church and president of the New Castle Ministerial association.

Dr. McCurdy presided over the service, gave the invocation and benediction and offered prayer.

Opening the service was a brief organ concert by A. Alfred Taylor, organist of the First U. P. church on Clemence boulevard.

Class Files In

Mr. Taylor presided at the organ as the seniors, in cap and gown, filed into their reserved section on the main floor. Leading was Principal Orth and the senior president, Glenn Gordon.

The senior high school chorus, also in cap and gown, and seated on the stage, sang during the program. The singers were under the direction of Robert A. Duff of the high school faculty.

The senior high school chorus sang "Send Forth Thy Light" by Balakirev, and the girls' chorus group later sang "O Gladsome Light" by Arkhangelsky.

The congregation joined in singing two numbers, "Holy, Holy, Holy" and "Now the Day is Over."

Baccalaureate Address

"Life can be glorious and romantic only when we are climbing," Rev. McLean told the class and his audience in the sermon. "That thing we cannot quite reach, that thing we can just touch with our fingertips but have not yet grasped with our hands, that is the thing which gives inspiration to this life."

"Here is a challenge to put into life the best we have and all that we have. It is a summons not only to move out from where we are but also to that which is possible for us to be to the completion of the journey. There is an old Chinese proverb which says: 'If you have a journey of 20 miles to make, count the journey half done when you have traveled nineteen-twentieths of the way.'"

"Here is a challenge to aspire to live the gospel of Christ."

"A missionary once asked a native if he had ever heard the gospel before. 'No,' said he, 'but I have seen it.' Then he went on to describe the transformation of one of the most wicked men he had ever known, by the power of the gospel."

"Surely the world today is in need of men and women who will carry into life the principles and ideals of the great Teacher of Galilee. You young folks are moving out into the world that is topsy-turvy. Yet here lies the challenge. What a day of opportunity is before you. This is a day when men tired of speculative theorizing are demanding reality. When men are concerned not so much with 'one fine spun theory but 'will it work.' It is here only that Christianity will become understandable to men. What great problems confront you today!"

"Here is a word of hope. It may be I am speaking to some one tonight who is conscious that you have come far short of your privilege. Look at the man of the text 'Thou art Simon,' unreliable, unstable, undependable. 'Thou shalt be Cephas, Peter a solid rock against which the storms of life shall beat. Thou shalt be reliable, stable, dependable, redeemed and lifted into a new life of righteousness and peace."

"What a challenge life holds for you. You are on the march. Your journey is not only onward but upward. I covet for you the best in life, and tonight I put you under bond to aspire to the very top, the very summit of goodness and truth, in character and conduct."

Award Cement Bid In Council Today

Council Rescinds Award To New Castle Feed, Coal & Supply Company

During council meeting held in the city hall today council awarded a contract to the Pombelle Coal & Supply Company for cement required in the construction of the Huron avenue storm sewer. Their bid was $2.31 per barrel. The city will buy 358 barrels, according to the bids.

The foregoing action was taken after an award to the New Castle Coal, Feed & Supply Company was rescinded. The latter's bid, $2.41, was checked in as $2.31, through compilation, it having been believed all bids were identical. As soon as the error was discovered revocation of the award was proposed and was put through today.

of the Highway Detour Bulletin issued by the department for the period ending February 3. Incidentally some of the Republican economy which is planned is evident in this bulletin, as evidently there was a supply of the bulletins on hand, and the name of Roy E. Brownmiller, former secretary, was blacked out, with Mr. Hughes' name being printed underneath. An entirely new set of bulletins could have been printed up, but it would have resulted in additional cost.

There were expected to be many additions to the 81 bills already introduced in the house. In the senate the number was much smaller. Most of the work for both the house and senate will necessarily have to be deferred until the receipt of the governor's budget message, now tentatively slated for February 6.

So in case you need a good general system tonic, remember for 3 generations one woman has told another how to get "smiling thru" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps build up more physical resistance and thus aids in giving you more pep and lessens distress from female functional disorders.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

UNDERSTANDING CHILDREN BETTER

There has been great progress among thoughtful parents in cultivating a sympathetic understanding attitude toward the growing child; in treating him as an individuality, in respecting the sacredness of his personality, and affording him opportunities to express himself.

All these developments seem to be in the right direction. Yet we need to ask ourselves if self-expression has been properly balanced by self-control. Apparently not. There has been the general assumption that self-control would naturally develop along with self-expression; that self-control, moreover, will develop from within. Have they so developed?

Acres of print and days of talk have been devoted to warning parents against restraint and inhibitions of the child even in his early years; to warning them against any sort of physical punishment at any age. Millions of parents have been told they would be brutes if they laid their hands on a child, even a tot, to restrain him. Apparently they have believed it. Parents generally suppose that modern scientific child guidance requires that they shall let their children do about as they please except as these children can be persuaded through love and reason.

As a rule, the doctrine of no-parental-restraint has been most widely accepted among the intelligentsia and the upper socio-economic level. Some of their children do turn out to be excellent citizens, thanks to the family influence and traditions and to the influence of good neighbors. But children of the less fortunate families imitating those of the more "fortunate" may easily become delinquents. After all it's the more influential parents of any community whose children set the standard of citizenship in youths for that whole community.

I have long believed and written that if we are to check juvenile delinquency, parents especially of the intelligentsia, will need to train their children in their early years in the unambiguous meaning of NO, and to this end bring back the good old-fashioned spanking with the hope that by the time the child is four or five he will have learned the essential basic inhibitions as well as to need no physical punishment thereafter.

In order to prevent juvenile delinquency let us go on urging parents to grow more sympathetic and understanding of the child and exercise still more regard for him as a personality. But let us balance all this with sensible restraint while the child is young. Restraint without love is barbarity. But love without restraint is a myth.

FATE

When Mistress Mary woke at eight She said: "I've slept an hour too late! Day after day I've walked the block To work at half-past seven o'clock! Now goodness gracious me! Oh dear! It will be nine ere I appear!"

Miss Mary knew the poor but proud Which made the half-past seven crowd, She knew them all from boss to clerk Who early walked the street to work And I must add, that there was not One marriage prospect in the lot.

This morning (was it planned by fate?) She saw the crowd of "half-past eight" And there he was! As nice a chap As ever wore a gray cloth cap. As fine a prince of manly charm As ever took a lady's arm!

Had Mistress Mary woke on time She'd not have heard the church bells chime; Had she not once played sleepy-head That chap she'd not have met and wed.

By Francine Markel

When in doubt as to your own particular type of coiffure, remember that a side part and soft, loose waves are the safest and most becoming to every woman who is without benefit of perfect features and perfect proportion of facial contour. A center part will accentuate every facial irregularity. The woman tending toward wrinkles or crepey skin should, shun tight waves and fussiness of hairdress, both of which will make these signs of age more pronounced. Simply arranged, loosely waved hair with a roll at the nape of the neck is very attractive for women of middle age who prefer bobbed hair.

Reader's Question Answered
Dear Miss Markel—I have heard that a man must not ask a girl to dance but that he should instead ask her escort for permission? Is this correct?
I. M.

Answer:—He really should have the consent of both the girl and her escort. This may be accomplished gracefully by asking the girl, in the presence of her escort, if he may have the next dance. If several couples go in a group, they usually trade partners after the first dance. Copyright, 1939, by Watkins Syndicate, Inc.

Unicameral Congress Is Urged
Norris Plan Not Likely Soon
Nebraska Finds System Works

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 23—

Having abolished lame duck congresses, Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska is agitating now for unicameral congresses. Due mainly to his influence his home state already has a unicameral legislature—that is, a legislature which is not split into a senate and house of representatives, but operates with only one chamber. Reports from the Cornhusker commonwealth are to the effect that the new system is quite satisfactory. Senator Norris advocated it on grounds of efficiency and economy. There was no sense in two houses, he argued; one is just as democratic and works faster.

Whether or not the same thing would do equally well on a national scale is problematic, but the Nebraska senator thinks it would.

Of course it couldn't be adopted, if at all, without a constitutional amendment. However, a constitutional amendment also had to precede abolition of lame duck congresses, and the Nebraska was potent enough to jam that through.

To be sure, getting the constitution amended takes time. The senator started a long while ago on his anti-lame duck crusade. He fought for it for years. His present fight will have to be pushed more briskly. His current term will expire at the end of 1942 and he says he will not run again. Even if he changes his mind, he will be past 80 then. He must hustle or his campaign will outlive him.

Lame Ducks Were Shot Sitting

Another thing: The lame ducks were shot sitting, so to speak. Nobody ever did love a lame duck. He neither could defend himself nor get out of the way.

Lame duck-ism was like this:

Election day was (and is yet) early in November. In the lame duck era, an incumbent lawmaker could be defeated on that date, but his term continued (and does yet) until the year's end. So he still was (and is yet) a chance to assert himself, a voting member of congress until the succeeding January 1. And congress, until Senator Norris got the constitution amended, met in early December. Therefore this beaten bird continued to have a legislative voice for about a month after his repudiation by his constituents—a period during which he might do a lot of dirty work.

Not unreasonably, Senator Norris considered this unfair. Accordingly his amendment cut out the congressional session between election day and January 1, thus eliminating the effectiveness of the lame ducks—the guys who had been beaten but whose terms had not quite ended.

There can, indeed, yet be a lame duck session of congress. If the president calls an extra session between election day and January 1, the lame ducks remain in action while the expiring year lasts. But extra sessions are exceptional.

The point is that Senator Norris had comparatively little opposition in his warfare against lame ducks. A lame duck is a politician who already has been licked, and who cares a hoot for a chap who has just been licked?

Won't Eliminate Selves

Compacting a congress of 96 senators and 435 representatives into a single body is altogether a different proposition.

Ninety-six and 435 foot up to a total of 531 seats on Capitol Hill. Senator Norris proposed one house would be, say, 265 strong, with the vice president casting the deciding vote on ties.

Are 531 senators and representatives going to endorse a constitutional amendment trimming their number of seats down by 266 altogether? Not if I know anything about politicians. The home voters might acquiesce, but a constitutional amendment calls for a congressional majority first.

The Original Notion
The original idea was that we needed two congressional chambers, in order to have a liberal house of representatives and a conservative senate, cross-checking one another.

Now that both senators and representatives are chosen alike by popular vote that purpose is lost. The senators are no less popularly representative than the representatives, except that their terms are longer. If anything, in actual practice, the senate is more progressive than the so-called lower house.

Senator Norris' scheme is logical all right.

But if he can get away with it he's a wonder.

The Great Game Of Politics

By FRANK R. KENT

(Copyright, 1938)

Politics At It's Worst

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.

IT BEING now clear that, stirred by the cost, the waste, the inefficiency and the political abuses of WPA, Congress intends at this session to remodel the system (without, it may be mentioned, any help from Mr. Roosevelt), there is one feature that should not be overlooked.

THE POINT has been reached where something should be done about Mr. David Lasser and his Workers Alliance. If the facts about Mr. Lasser and this organization permeate to the people there is little question about the way they would feel about it. Particularly would this be true if they had had an opportunity to see Mr. Lasser in action in Washington last week, when he truculently accused Senators of trying to "beat down wages" and intimated that if they did not yield to his demands there would be a march of relief workers upon Washington.

THE QUESTION thus raised seems plain. Briefly, it is this: Is it in the public interest that men and women on the Federal relief rolls should join an organization whose sole purpose is to apply pressure to the Federal Government for more money? It is hard to believe that any sensible and posted person will answer yes. Even in this day when the principle of collective bargaining between employer and employee is generally accepted and White House tenderness toward the labor leaders is unprecedented, the dangers of applying this principle to the Government and those whom it supports with the public funds, appear obvious.

YET, SUCH an organization has not only been recognized but encouraged by the Roosevelt Administration. Its leader, Mr. Lasser, is sympathetically received at the White House and highly eulogized by the President's friends. Mr. Aubrey Williams, as chief WPA aide to Mr. Hopkins, publicly expressed the hope that every man and woman on relief would join the Lasser union. Thus we have the astounding spectacle of an Administration enthusiastically encouraging an organization whose avowed purpose is to put pressure upon it. Nothing quite like that has happened before.

IN RETURN for this Mr. Lasser, now claiming to represent 1,500 "local unions" with 400,000 members, is an avowed New Dealer and a hundred per cent. Roosevelt man who says of himself and his union: "We are in politics with both feet." What aside from the fact that Mr. Lasser's "union" was conceived and created by the Communists and today has a strong Communist flavor, what this sort of thing means is clear. It gives impetus and endorsement to the welding of relief beneficiaries into an organized political minority with which Government officials from President down can be bullied. It forges an instrument with which the relief burden can be riveted upon the taxpayer and its weight steadily increased. It provides a weapon which can be used to stage riots and hunger marches and frightening demonstrations.

THERE IS no desire here to exaggerate the present size of Mr. Lasser. At this time, despite his claims and the obvious White House leanings toward him, he is a good deal of a bluffer with nothing like the power he pretends to. Nor are members of the Senate either awed or attracted by him to anything like the extent of the "Grea. Americans," as they so often and modestly call each other, of the inner White House circle. Members of Congress at this time are more impressed by the Mayors, the Governors, the small merchants, and the labor lobby than by Mr. Lasser. Nevertheless, thoughtful men who reflect upon the facts and grasp the political implications of the Administration support, understand that, unchecked, this arrogant little agitator may easily be built up into a far more menacing figure than he now is. Continued support from the Administration upon which he puts pressure, together with backing by the regular labor leaders, ultimately will result in a serious threat to the relief rolls, a political machine of great weight and power.

THE POLITICS in relief which Mr. Lasser represents and of which he boasts, is vastly worse than the politics shown by the Senate committee and the politics played by Mr. Hopkins. It is the most vicious sort of politics. In effect, it is a day a political trump there is to-day a political trump from the relief rolls, a political machine of great weight and power.

"Excellent feed" doesn't mean any particular kind. It means whatever kind of curious mess you were fed up on.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

UP TO TOM MOONEY

Tom Mooney, who for twenty odd years has been considered the most famous prisoner in the United States, is now a free man.

Governor Olson of California was probably elected governor simply because he promised to pardon Tom Mooney in the event the people elected him governor. This obtained for Mr. Olson the votes of a great majority of Union Laborites of California. Olson has redeemed his promise and at a very spectacular show in Sacramento handed Tom Mooney his pardon.

It is now up to Mooney, if possible, to show that he is not the bad citizen that many honest thinking people have believed him to be. It must be remembered the case has been before the governors and pardon boards of California since his conviction and sentence. His case has been before every court, even before the Supreme Court of the United States, and in every instance, until Olson was elected governor

Tom Mooney has been met with the constant rejection of his prayers.

It must be noticed by those who have read this story of the scene enacted in Sacramento the first week of January and have looked at the pictures published in the press and on the silver screen that Mr. Bridges was very close to Tom Mooney when the document extending the pardon was handed to Mr. Mooney. Bridges is a very dangerous man and will be dangerous company for Tom Mooney if he wishes to show the people of California and of the world that whatever he may have done in the past, he will not in the future be guilty of any sabotage or any act similar to the one for which he was convicted following that Preparedness Day Parade in San Francisco. Mr. Mooney has an opportunity to show that he is entirely opposed to any lawlessness on the part of labor. He will, undoubtedly, again be very prominent in the labor councils in the state of California and he must hereafter counsel peaceful settlement of all questions arising between workmen and their employers. He must be particularly careful for he is going to be a very marked man from now on.

Americanism: Making sacrifices to educate the children so they'll have a better chance; living at government expense and piling up debts that will keep the kids poor.

Mexico "Turning On Heat" On U. S. And British Oilmen

By H. R. KNICKERBOCKER
International News Service Staff
Correspondent
MEXICO CITY, Mexico, Jan. 23.—Mexico is turning the heat on the British and American oilmen who lost property they value at an estimated $500,000,000 in the oil fields and plants expropriated here last March by the government of President Lazaro Cardenas.

Until now the outside world believed that the oil companies by blocking sales of the expropriated oil in the territories influenced by the United States or Great Britain were in a superior economic position to coerce Mexico.

Now President Cardenas, in an exclusive interview with International News Service, declares that if the oilmen do not speedily decide to buy the oil which used to be theirs, and by this means take compensation for their expropriated property, the Mexican government will soon make long term contracts to sell its oil "elsewhere."

"Elsewhere" means to Germany, Italy and Japan, and possibly to some Latin American states, the only countries so far willing to trade in the expropriated oil. Until now Mexico has been bartering the oil piecemeal to these countries with each sale a separate transaction. Now a leading Mexican authority tells me that if Mexico were willing to sign a five to ten year contract, she could sell all her oil to Italy alone, and receive a high percentage of the payments in cash.

Such long term contracts would establish trade connections which could be fatal to American commerce with Mexico, normally amounting to more than $300,000,000 a year of exports and imports. So, in the Mexican view, it is now up to the oil companies to hold out for the return of their properties as they are now doing and get nothing, or take a compromise, save something for themselves, and rescue American-Mexican trade in the bargain.

These are the arguments implicit in the interview which President Cardenas, leader of the Great Independent Nationalist and Socialist movement in Mexico, gave me in the simply furnished presidential office of the vast old National Palace.

Eighty-One Bills Are Introduced

One Of Bills Would Allow Governor To Succeed Himself In Office

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Jan. 23.—Eighty-one bills, many providing for changes in government organization, today commanded the attention of Pennsylvania's returning legislators.

The proposed legislation also provides for two constitutional amendments to allow the governor to succeed himself and to make the attorney generalship an elective office instead of appointive.

Additional important bills introduced include an "anti-macine" measure, proposals to legalize horse racing, and pari-mutual betting establishment of a state wide lottery; proposals to abolish more than 2000 local tax collectors and to tax now-exempt utility companies, except pipelines and railroad rights-of-way; and a bill which would increase to $1400 the minimum annual salaries of policemen in third-class cities.

Fear That Missing Woman Is Dead, And Covered By Snow

Hope Fades For Safety Of Woman Who Walked Into Storm On Imaginary "Mercy" Errand

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Jan. 23.—Hopelessly, yet frankly skeptical of success, small parties of friends and relatives today continued their search in the area around Tarentum for a 61-year-old woman who disappeared 15 days ago in a swirling snow storm while on a visionary "mercy" errand.

The missing woman, Mrs. T. P. Hueskins, started out in the storm after announcing that she had a vision that her son had been stranded in his machine nearby. She was known as a deeply religious person and had been reading a Bible at the time of her "vision."

No Trace Found

Carrying a half-gallon jug of gasoline, the aged woman left her home and walked away into the storm despite all efforts to dissuade her. She was last seen by two youngsters who reported she had passed them on the Bull Creek road, apparently heading toward Millertown.

A search was launched the following day when she failed to return and since then rescue parties have continued to comb the woods and valleys in the neighborhood without success.

Mrs. Hueskins had imagined a son by a former marriage, Howland Turner of Youngstown, had been stranded by lack of gasoline while enroute to her home in Bartley's Hollow, Paxon township, a week ago last Friday. The son, detectives learned, was at his home during the entire evening.

Theories were expressed that the aged woman might have died and her body covered by the huge snow drifts in the territory.

New Roads May Result From Lakes-To-Sea Highway Test

HARRISBURG, Jan. 23.—The nation's highway safety experts had eyes focused attentively today on a 3500 foot strip of road in Clearfield county where a vitally important new road construction experiment may eventually revolutionize highway building.

News of the unique experimental road, a corrugated stretch "geared" to automobile tire treads now serving traffic on the Lakes-to-Sea highway on U. S. 322, between Grampan and Luthersburg, has brought to the State Highway Department many requests for periodic information from engineers in every part of the country.

The experiment will not be completed until 1940, department engineers said, when it will be able to determine effect of the winter's snow and the spring thaw on its durability and safety.

George Warso, Katherine street, R. D. 3, has recovered sufficiently Test borings are made monthly and other phases of the "auto-tire tread" surface are checked regularly, H. S. Mattimore, chief tests engineer, said. He pointed out that it was "too early" to determine whether the road will be practical for general construction.

Life expectancy of that type of highway surface is claimed to be "far greater" than any bituminous resurfacing, with consequent reduction in maintenance costs.

Surface of the Clearfield county test road bears corrugations similar to imprints of a heavy tire. The indentures are molded into the wet concrete by vacuum mats during construction. The three-inch thick test section was laid without reinforcement over the old concrete road which had deteriorated under pounding of an average daily traffic of 4,000 vehicles.

Philadelphia Girl Lives But Five Minutes After Taking Of Drug Over-Dose

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 23.—Charged with a "prescription error" which resulted in the death of 15-year-old Isabelle Pratz, Dr. John Raftery, a well-known Philadelphia physician, and Pearl Borow, 25, a pharmacist, today were at liberty under heavy bail pending action of a coroner's jury.

Isabelle, youngest of five children of an unemployed father, died Saturday night after taking a dose of the medicine, detectives testified. She died five minutes after taking a tablespoonful of the medicine, police said.

At a hearing in police court, Dr. Raftery purportedly admitted prescribing 20 grains of a stimulant instead of one-half grain.

Miss Borow said she considered the prescription unusually strong, but made no effort to check with Dr. Raftery because of his reputation and 30 years' medical experience.

(International News Service)
MEADVILLE, Pa., Jan. 23.—Crawford county's February grand jury was scheduled today to investigate a student publication's statement that Marijuana cigarettes were being smoked by pupils of Meadville high school.

District Attorney Herbert A. Mook announced that he would issue subpoenas to responsible members of the school's student newspaper, "The Mead High News," and bring them before the grand jury to tell what they knew of a survey conducted among pupils which disclosed that 16 girls admitted smoking the drugged cigarettes.

The survey was conducted by the newspaper at the request of Superintendent Warren P. Norton. Among other things, there were 22 replies indicating minors had purchased liquor from local dealers. District Attorney Mook said he would investigate this development himself.

World Spiritual Revival Needed

National W. C. T. U. President Talks Over Radio On Ills Of Nation

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—A world spiritual revival would quickly solve the problems of dope, venereal disease and "other human ills," Mrs. Ida B. Wise Smith, national W. C. T. U. president, declared in a broadcast.

Attending the conference on the cause and cure of war, assailed widespread gambling, described the United States as "the dope market of the world" and a center for the rise of venereal disease to the increasing use of liquor.

"Dr. Wilbur (president of Leland Stanford University), a real friend of young men and women, has said, 'The real perils in America today are alcohol and gasoline on the highway, and gonorrhea and syphilis in the byway,'" Mrs. Smith observed.

"History," he continued, "shows that a moral lapse always precedes financial collapse. We still are in the backwash of the moral conditions which came before the 1939 depression. Moral stability cannot be secured without religion. Purity, then prosperity."

News And Views From Pennsylvania Capital

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Jan. 23.—Democrat's express considerable skepticism over Gov. Arthur H. James' economy program, insofar, at least, as it effects the state payroll. Although Democrats may not necessarily question the sincerity of the governor or his desire to effect a payroll reduction, they do question whether or not it will be done.

They point to the state house of representatives and what happened there when the Republicans took over. The Republicans during their pre-earle administration rule employed a chief clerk and a resident clerk at $6000 each, or a total of $12,000 a year. When the Democrats came into power in 1935, they combined both offices and elected only a chief clerk, raising his pay to $7500 and effecting a $4500 annual saving. Now with the Republicans back in the saddle, the post of resident clerk has been resurrected at $6000 a year, plus an executive secretary to assist the two clerks at $3600, a total of $17,000 or an increase of $9600 annually.

Governor James will carry on a custom of his predecessors by having weekly cabinet meetings. They will be held at 11 a. m. Tuesday...

Ex-Governor Earle's cabinet was accustomed to meeting Tuesdays at noon.

The new chief executive has already given considerable evidence of having a mind of his own. Visitors to the executive offices do not remain overlong, just time enough to state their case and make way for the next one. The new governor apparently has no time for dilly-dallying.

On his second full day in office, Governor James had occasion to see his new attorney general, Claude E. Reno. So he nonchalantly sauntered down the hall and into the justice department. "There was nothing cheery about him," remarked one of the Democratic employees who saw him enter. "He was just like any other visitor."

Governor James' private secretary is a boy from his own county of Luzerne, David Connolly. His executive and chief secretary is Paul Pedigo of Philadelphia.

Headquarters of the state banking department, it is understood, will now be located in Harrisburg instead of Philadelphia. Robert W. Doty is a Harrisburger while his predecessor was a Philadelphian.

Robbery Charges Against Brothers At Cleveland, Ohio

(International News Service)
CLEVELAND, Jan. 23.—With robbery charges already filed against them, Peyton Wilson, 28, and his brother, Quentin, 22, today seemed destined to stand trial in Cleveland rather than in one of half a dozen other cities seeking to connect them with robberies.

The brothers, self-styled scions of a Chicago meat packing family and "society aviators," were held in Cuyahoga county jail under $50,000 bond each. The bond, highest ever set in a Cleveland robbery case, was fixed by Municipal Judge Joseph H. Silbert at the request of Assistant Police Prosecutor William F. McCarthy, who feared friends of the brothers might try to secure their release.

The specific charge was the robbery of Mrs. Robert Montis of $28 and a ring valued at $50.
The pair also was wanted in Niagara Falls, N. Y., Gulfport, Miss., New Orleans, and Nashville, Tenn.

LET UP—LIGHT UP A CAMEL

SMOKERS FIND THAT CAMEL'S COSTLIER TOBACCOS ARE SOOTHING TO THE NERVES

101 STORIES UP on the world's tallest building, Sidney Evert swings in the wind with only a frail scaffold between him and—well, it's 1100 feet to the street. His work is to repair windows in the tower of the Empire State Building. Nerve straining, you bet, but as Sid Evert says: "A fellow with jumpy nerves wouldn't last long on my job. So I ease the tension on my nerves whenever I can. I let up—light up a Camel. I find Camels are soothing to the nerves." Smokers in a wide variety of nerve-nagging occupations, nerve-straining sports turn to Camels for the same reason. They find it pays to ease nerve tension often. So they let up—light up a Camel!

TRAPPED ON A BLAZING WRECK,
Captain Hans Milton displayed courage and nerve-power that won him head-lines from coast to coast. He says: "On the schooner Pioneer, afire 400 miles out of Halifax, we had a little food and water and some Camels. Those Camels were a great comfort through the nerve strain of worry and danger. It's a rule with me, whenever I feel my nerves getting tense, keyed-up, to let up—light up a Camel."

"RUNNING A HOME is a full-time job," says Mrs. Frank E. Smith, housewife and hostess, "and every minute of it can be nerve straining. Cleaning up, planning meals, social affairs would run me pretty ragged (and add years to my looks) if I didn't make sure to protect my nerves. My way of avoiding jumpy nerves is this: The minute I feel tense and 'edgy,' I pause—I let up—light up a Camel. I find Camels really soothing to the nerves."

(above) A GORDON SETTER is pictured here—a handsome, muscular dog to be proud of. It's a thrill to watch his flashing action. And it's a valuable lesson to observe that after strenuous activities, this dog suddenly halts...relaxes! Though his nervous system is high-strung like our own, the dog responds quickly to the instinctive urge to rest. We don't usually look after our nerves that well. Perhaps you have often willed yourself on...hour after hour at a task...ignoring nerve strain. Try breaking that nerve strain occasionally—pause now and then—LET UP—LIGHT UP A CAMEL! Camels are a matchless blend of fine, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS...Turkish and Domestic.

One Of Caldwell's Poems Good Enough For Church Magazine

"Buckwheat" is the topic discussed by "Benedicite" (Dr. Samuel Gamble) of Butler, in the current issue of The United Presbyterian magazine, and in the column Benedicite uses a poem about buckwheat written many years ago by James P. Caldwell, veteran reporter for The News.

Dr. Gamble, former pastor of the Second U. P. church of this city, a regular contributor to the denomination's magazine, in non de plume, pays tribute to the genius of Mr. Caldwell in the following introduction to the buckwheat poem: "The New Castle News is a splendid daily. We took that paper for more than 20 years. It had a writer who deserved far greater fame than he achieved. 'Jim' Caldwell was the Walt Mason of New Castle. The other day we ran across a product of his pen that we clipped for our scrapbook many years ago. We thank 'Jim' as we use it."

LET'S DANCE
(International News Service)
FOREST GROVE, Ore.—Students at Union high school don't care whether it's the Virginia Reel or the Lambeth Walk, but they do want to dance. To prove it, 150 students massed in protest against the board of education's ruling against school dances for several days. Students returned to classes when promised by the school board that the dance question would be given serious thought.

Brooklyn Girls Cause Furor

Rob Motorist And Throw Long Island Station Into Up-roar

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—Two teen-aged Brooklyn girls were charged by police today with climbing an extended drinking spree by robbing a motorist who sought to befriend them and then throwing Long Island railroad station into an uproar, wounding a bystander.

Rockaway Beach police who captured the girls said the leader fainted when Sergeant Myron Watts fired a shot over her head. Police said the girls were so far under the influence of alcohol they were unable to give a coherent story. After being treated for intoxication they were placed in the custody of the children's society at Jamaica, Queens borough. They will be given a hearing today, probably on charges of juvenile delinquency.

It was believed the girls gave fictitious addresses and possibly fictitious names. Both were under 16.

Police began pursuit of the girls when Harry Delfino, 42, of Brooklyn, telephoned he had been held up. He said he picked up the girls in his car and almost immediately one confronted him with a gun and ordered him to remove his overcoat and trousers. He removed his coat but balked on the pants. One of the girls robbed him of $4 and ordered him out of the car which was later found abandoned.

Soon afterwards, Emanuel Kainer, a cab driver, rushed into the police station and informed Sergeant Watts the railroad station across the street was being "shot up by a couple of kids." Watts entered the station with a drawn gun to find one of the girls in the center of the station holding the .38 calibre gun from which she had fired three shots. When she failed to obey his command to drop the gun, he fired and she collapsed.

John O'Neill, 32, of Rockaway Park, was struck in the left wrist by one of the girl's shots.

Long Range Health Program Urged

President Sends Message For Basis Of Federal-State Cooperation

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—A comprehensive long-distance health improvement program, on a basis of federal-state cooperation, was proposed to congress today by President Roosevelt.

The executive transmitted to congress the report of his special interdepartmental committee and recommended that it be given "careful study."

Mr. Roosevelt's special message made no specific reference to the one recommendation in the report which is vigorously opposed by the American Medical Association—establishment of compulsory state health insurance.

The program will involve an annual expenditure of $850,000,000 by 1949, but will start on a much more modest scale. Senator Wagner (D) New York is prepared to introduce a bill appropriating $50,000,000 to launch the program.

Firemen Battle Freighter Blaze

Starting shortly after midnight, the fire continued throughout the morning and fire department officials saw little hope of checking it for many more hours.

Before it had been under way long five casualties had resulted. Third engineer Ernest Rawson, 21 of Vancouver, suffered third degree burns.

Second Officer Jack Forest was cut on the face. Fire Lieut. Axel Kuhre was treated for chest strain, the result of breathing heavy smoke containing crude oil and rubber.

Fireman Edward Farrell was temporarily blinded by cinders.

Wheeling Police Checking Murder

Believe Death Of Man In Wheeling, Wounding Of Another Acts Of Gangland

(International News Service) WHEELING, W. Va., Jan. 23.—With one man dead and another in a serious condition in the hospital, police worked on a theory of gangland slaying, today as they investigated a shooting affray which occurred here last night in reputed "numbers" racket headquarters.

Tom "Patty" Bonovitch, 55, of Columbus, O., was slain in the fracas and Nick Miller, 32, of Weirton, W. Va., received a bullet wound in the shoulder, police said. Witnesses were quoted by police as saying Bonovitch shot Miller in a restaurant but the latter's executioners were not known.

Both men were said to be ex-convicts. Miller reportedly was a chauffeur for Bill Dias, who police termed "ex-king of the 'numbers' racket." Bonovitch was struck by six bullets.

The shooting followed by several days a police raid on the alleged "numbers" headquarters last week. Two men were held for the grand jury while 10 Weirton men were fined $1,500 Saturday.

Police inferred there might be a connection between the present slaying and the murders of Mike Russell, of Wheeling, and "Happy" Marino, of Youngstown, O., in 1937.

Seek To Restore W.P.A. Fund Cut

Administration Leaders Will Attempt To Increase Fund To $875,000,000

By ARTHUR HACHTEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Administration leaders in Congress swung into action today after a White House conference in an effort to restore $150,000,000 slashed from the emergency relief appropriation.

The leadership wants to increase the WPA fund to the $875,000,000 figure recommended by President Roosevelt. The House voted only $725,000,000 to carry the relief rolls—3,000,000 workers are now on the payroll—and this figure also was approved by the Senate appropriations committee.

Upon emerging from a conference with the President at the White House which was attended by Vice President Garner and other congressional leaders, Barkley said: "I think we know as much now about the relief problem as we will April 1. Even with $875,000,000, 300,000 workers will have to be dropped from the relief roll."

"The bill invites the President to ask Congress for additional funds later, and he already knows he needs more."

"I see no reason for taking two bites at the appropriation." It was aggressive by observers on Capitol Hill, however, that the administration forces faced an uphill fight on behalf of the President's recommendation for $875,000,000 in view of the 17 to 7 vote of the appropriations committee in support of the $150,000,000 reduction.

Man Arrested In Baltimore, Faces Serious Charges

(International News Service) BALTIMORE, Jan. 23.—Lyle Gordy, a Baltimore resident, was free under $2,000 bond today pending a hearing on his extradition to Luzerne county, Pennsylvania. Pennsylvania authorities had Baltimore police arrest him yesterday on a warrant charging him with assault and battery and intent to rape. District Attorney Leon Schwarz of Wilkes-Barre, told Baltimore police he wants to give Gordy a "routine questioning" in connection with the attack-murder of Miss Margaret Martin. Her body was found near Wilkes-Barre December 21. He emphasized, however, that Gordy is not wanted in connection with the Martin case.

The strangest of all causes of war was an argument over the sex of a bear. It occurred in Switzerland, and thousands of Swiss soldiers died because St. Gall asserted the figure of a bear on a coat of arms was a male, and Appenzell insisted it was female.

Dr. Dafoe's Column On The Quintuplets And The Care Of Your Children

Copyright 1938, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

DIET OF PREMATURE CHILDREN ONE OF MOST IMPORTANT OF ALL CONSIDERATIONS

Feeding premature children is one of the most important of duties.
With the quintuplets it was the heaviest job of all, keeping the nurses busy all the time, it seemed.

Premature children, at first, are usually fed every two hours. This is because they must get that strength-giving food if they are to live. These two-hour feedings often were on that schedule until they were 28 days old; from that period
until the seventh week we fed them
every two and a half hours; from the seventh until the 23rd week,
food was given at four-hour intervals
and from then until the 41st week
they were fed on a five-hour schedule.

When they were just under five months we began to change over from mothers' milk to a mixture of cow's milk, water and corn syrup—
the mixture being boiled together.
We had to change to cow's milk because they were using a gallon of mothers' milk daily, and it was very hard to keep up the supply.

After a few days on whole milk,
I got some advice from my brother,
Dr. W. A. Dafoe of Toronto, who all the way through had been a tower of strength. His advice caused us to change to evaporated milk.
This was largely because it was hard to get good milk at the hospital, and what we did get was unpasteurized, and had to be boiled. We could be sure of evaporated milk, so we used
it with gratifying results.

Our experience with acidophilus
milk has been a satisfactory one, too.
When the children were five months
old we added it to the regular diet.
We found that it did much to keep the bowels regular and normal. In fact they got quite fond of it and are still taking it.

When the babies were six weeks
old we began giving them orange juice. Tomato juice would have been just as good but it didn't seem to agree as well with them. Pineapple juice or grapefruit juice would have been all right, too. At first they got this juice once in small quantities but we gradually increased it until they were getting about four ounces of it daily. If you have been following these columns, you will remember that a short time ago I went into the value of these juices for their vitamin C content.

At the age of two months, the quints got their first sunshine vitamin—vitosteril and in a short time
we substituted our old friend cod-liver oil, and they have been getting vitamin D this way ever since.
I know that plenty of parents think that it is sufficient to give cod-liver oil only in the winter months, but up in this country where winters
are so long, I recommend to mothers that they give it all the time. Of course, they should reduce the dose
in the summer.

We began feeding prune juice to the children when they were four and a half months; they still take it.
At five months they got some pre-cooked, base-forming cereal; two months later they were given different vegetables, cooked and strained.
About that time they had their first egg yolk, and two weeks after that,
cooked fruit pulps, mainly apricots
and apples.

Readers should remember that all
this was done in the care of premature babies. Ordinary children, born after the full period, advance from one food to another much more quickly.

NEWS BRIEFS IN WARD DISTRICT

Freight trains that pass through the Seventh Ward daily seem to be growing in length and number of cars. There also seems to be an increased number of trains daily.

Some thoughtful person has taken care of the bird-bath situation in the Liberty Street park. Some time ago the bath managed to get bumped and was leaning over at an angle. The bath is now back in place and ready for use.

With the appearance of Valentines in the various stores, one is reminded that the first month of the new year is almost at an end. Valentine Day, February 14, is but 23
days away.

It would have been bad for anyone to have ventured out the rear door of the Mahoning Methodist church on Saturday or Sunday.
The steps at this door were covered with a very heavy coating of ice and would have been dangerous to descend.

One of the larger gasoline companies is now considering the purchase of the property at the corner of North Liberty and Cherry streets in the ward for the erection of another filling station. If this is done
it will mean that one of the familiar landmarks in the ward will have to be removed.

Swiss Frontier Guard Increased

(International News Service)

BERNE, Switzerland, Jan. 23. —
The government of the Swiss Canton of St. Gall today strengthened its frontier forces by a detachment of 100 extra police because of "news from the eastern frontier."

Rumors that Swiss troops had been mobilized or that other extraordinary defense measures had been taken were semi-officially denied.

Paris, Jan. 23. — Strengthening of the Swiss frontier guard was believed here today as a measure designed to allay fears of the local population following unconfirmed
rumors of troop movements in Aus-

Enters Wrong Home In Corry, Shot To Death

Man Is Slain As He Tries To Crash His Way From Basement

CORRY, Jan. 23.—Arthur Betts, 41
of 11 Center street, Union City, formerly of Corry, died in the Corry hospital Sunday from a bullet wound he reportedly suffered while attempting to enter a neighbors
home by mistake.

No charges will be preferred
against Wilson Smith of 7 Center street, who fired the shot through a door Saturday when Betts entered the basement of the Fred Smith home and attempted to reach the first floor.

Although Betts' condition was not considered serious when he was first admitted to the local institution, it was discovered on the bullet, which had entered the left hip had passed into the abdomen, resulting in hemorrh-
ages from which he died.

Betts had been drinking Saturday when he entered the basement of the Smith home in mistake for his adjoining residence. Members of the Smith family were aroused when they heard the intruder in the basement and called to him to stop as he started up the cellar stairs, but he failed to answer and when he started pounding on the cellar door the younger Smith fired a shot through the door.

Police were called but Betts had fled and was not found until three hours later in the same neighborhood in a drunken stupor and suffering from the wound. He was taken to Corry hospital where he died 24 hours later.

Important Change Made In Reserve

Time For Enlistment In Regular Army Reserve Extended To Wednesday

Sergeant Owen E. Tighe, officer-in-charge of the local United States Army Recruiting Office, stated today that an important change in the requirements for enlistment in the Regular Army Reserve have been made.

In a radiogram received at the local office this morning, it was learned that enlistments in the army reserve will be in enlisted grade last held at time of discharge from regular army or in grade held prior to reduction in cases of non-commissioned officers and privates
first class, reduced solely because of return to United States from overseas.

The Army Reserve was recently organized, and is for ex-service men,
regardless of the time of their discharge and whether they be married or single.

According to Sergeant Tighe, the time for enlistments in the reserve has also been extended. Applicants received before 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, January 25, will be accepted. Major Harry R. Simmons, of Erie, will come here to accept the men.

To Push Legislation To Provide 3000 Planes For Army

Hope For Early Start On Work

Military Affairs Committee Expects To Approve Bill During Week

NEED $50,000,000 FUND INCREASE

By ROBERT HUMPHREYS
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Congressional leaders moved today to expedite legislation authorizing 3,000 additional planes for the Army in order that a special $50,000,000 appropriation may be rushed through Congress in the next 60 days to start their construction.

Chairman Andrew May of the House Military Affairs committee, announced that his committee expected to approve late this week the administration's bill increasing the present 2,320-plane limitation on the Army to 6,000.

Stresses Urgency
At the same time, members of the appropriations subcommittee on military establishments, starting hearings today on the Army's supply bill for the next fiscal year, disclosed that their plans called for tacking the special $50,000,000 appropriation on the measure if Congress can get the plane bill through in the next three weeks. The urgency of starting the $300,000,000 program at once with an initial appropriation of $50,000,000 was stressed by President Roosevelt in his rearmament message to Congress two weeks ago. The president said that the money should be voted "quickly...in order to correct the present lag in aircraft production due to idle plants."

Fireworks Bill Will Come Before Legislature Again

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Jan. 23.—The fireworks bill, center of a stormy controversy in the last session during which it failed of passage by two votes in the senate after successfully hurdling the house, was slated today to be reintroduced.

Its sponsors hope this time to give it bi-partisan backing. It is expected to be introduced in the house, probably this month, by Rep. William R. Shearer, R., Cumberland, and in the senate by Harry Shapiro, Philadelphia Democrat. One fireworks bill has already been introduced in the house by Democratic Senator Samuel M. Rosenfeld, Philadelphia, but it is expected that the bill now to be introduced will be one around which the fight for enactment will be centered.

At Furness in Belgium is held the famous Procession of the Penitents when men and women stagger through the streets carrying heavy crosses. The procession has been held annually since 1398.

Whatever It Is, It Was Washed Up From the Sea

Some say it is the skeleton of a sea serpent, others insist it's the remains of a monster. Anyway, it was washed up at Cape Cod, Mass., and scientists say that if its missing tail were added, it would measure thirty feet. Coast Guardsmen from Provincetown discovered the what-ever-it-is.

The Human Side Of The News

(By EDWIN C. HILL)

Copyright 1939 King Features Syndicate, Inc.

When the great, white-winged square-riggers carried the trade of the world over the Seven Seas, men talked about short cuts to far places, especially short cuts between the Far East and Europe, escaping the stormy, dreaded voyage around Cape Horn. Engineers came to the rescue of the mariners, the traders and the tourists and with the Suez Canal, the waters of the Red Sea and the Mediterranean were joined. With the Panama Canal the Pacific Ocean was linked with the Atlantic.

Today these two canals again make big news. Italy demands that the French government set up a new authority to administer the Suez, contending that control of the canal should be in the hands of those nations that make the greatest use of this short cut to the Orient. The financial structure is principally in the hands of the French. French investors own more than fifty per cent of the stock. Great Britain has about 44 per cent. And The Netherlands has a small share in the control. Italy would change all that.

Under the arrangement Mussolini's government suggests, Great Britain would be the leading power because more of her ships pass through the canal. Italy would be second because of the trade she has gained since the capture of Ethiopia, most of which passes through the Suez. France would rank several notches down, even below Germany. As regards Panama, our own great canal, the governor of the Canal Zone, Colonel C. S. Ridley, urges upon the War Department that the water link between the two oceans be enlarged, that new locks be built to augment those already in use, and that the present locks be made bomb-proof at once. Word comes from Washington that Congress will study those recommendations in this present session.

Congress will consider, also, a growing demand that our $3,000,000 option with Nicaragua, permitting us to build an Atlantic-Pacific Canal through that republic, be exercised, and that a second "life-line" be provided for our national security. A second trans-oceanic canal is important, it is argued, not only for our own national security, but as further protection for the republics of Central and South America.

Our statesmen no longer ignore the potential threat from the propaganda which has been deluging the Latin-American republics and which has been definitely hostile to American interests. It is a threat the United States cannot possibly ignore. We have not only the obligation to defend the small and weaker republic of the south, but our financial stake in South America alone is tremendous. We have more money invested in the ten republics of South America than in any other area of the world except Canada; more than in all Europe, or in Asia. Two billion dollars would hardly total those investments.

But that, after all, is secondary to the threat to our national security—or the menace to our peace—of a powerful European or Asiatic nation, greedy for raw materials, taking over, in some guise or other, a state of the Western Hemisphere. The Republics of the South are awake to their individuality and their culture. They don't want outside doctrines imposed upon them. This same situation will be sure to make the Nicaragua Canal a live issue.

There is likely to be a strong recommendation to Congress to authorize the 175 mile Nicaragua Canal. We paid three million dollars to Nicaragua in 1916 for a 100-year right to build it, and for the right to establish a naval base at each end. The total cost is estimated at $732,000,000 and the time of building is ten years. The distance between New York and San Francisco would be cut about 1,000 miles; the time by two days or more. With two canals, though, the job of forcing our fighting ships to go around South America to get from Atlantic to Pacific or vice versa would be all but impossible for any enemy.

The great lighthouse on Fire Island, whose golden beam points the way to New York, and which rears 168 feet above the sands of the wave-battered stretch of coast, now propels a 19-mile beam of light from a huge electric bulb. Electricity replaces kerosene and the old Fire Island lighthouse catches up with the times.

What drama that lighthouse has seen down through the sweep of years. What tall ships ashore! What gallant rescues! What romance there is in all of those great lighthouses of the world! They go back in their thrilling history to the beacon fires that burned in Lower Egypt more than four thousand years ago; to the great Pharos of Alexandria, one of the seven wonders of the world before Caesar reigned in Rome. Their radiance, steady and unfaltering, or coming as a sudden, surprising glow in the gale and gloom, illuminates one's travels in odd corners of the world.

There is a thrill in their very names. The great Light of Corduan, that immense, wave-swept tower, rising two hundred feet above its high rock at the mouth of the Gironde in France; the ancient light tower at Corunna, Spain, the "Pillar of Hercules"; the last spark of life seen by ships heading westward for the Americas; Torre del Capo, at Genoa, built eight hundred years ago, springing two hundred and thirty-six feet above its cliff; Great Eddystone Light, off Plymouth, England, casting the savage glare of two hundred and ninety-two thousand candles, burning as one, over the perilous shoals of the Hands Deep; Bishop Rock and Fastnet Lighthouse, the first lights seen by great liners on their passage to England, and the last landmark they glimpse on their way to New York.

One of the most interesting and storm-beaten of all is Fastnet Rock Lighthouse on the extreme southeast corner of the coast of Ireland. Even to land on Fastnet Rock is an exciting experience. Before it was rebuilt waves dashed right over the lantern, 173 feet above the surface of the sea. So terrific was the shock of the sea that a full cup of coffee standing on a table in the very top room was hurled to the floor when heavy waves thundered against the living rock.

Even in these modern days, when ships speak to ship by radio and call to land, the men who go down to the sea in ships turn their eyes gratefully to these tall, slim brethren of the coasts fighting their eternal fight against the ancient enemy.

And what a comfort to know that long after restless sleep comes, VapoRub will still be working—two ways at once—direct through the skin like a poultice, and direct to the irritated air-passages with its medicated vapors. You'll find that often by morning the worst of the cold is over.

Build Elaborate Sets For Brief Film Scenes

By MILTON HARKER
International News Service Staff
Correspondent
(Copyright 1939)

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 23.—A whole set, albeit a small one, was constructed at Universal for a scene lasting only three seconds.

It was to show Joan Blondell knocking on a door in "East Side Of Heaven," in which she is playing with Bing Crosby.

As soon as Joan had rapped on the panel for the benefit of the camera, carpenters swarmed all over the set, taking down in a few minutes what had required half a day to build.

Joan still is upset because she couldn't get away with husband Dick Powell for their long planned "second honeymoon" in the east. "I had my baggage packed and one foot on the train when this reporter," Dick and I have been planning a vacation together for two and a half years and something always has intervened. But, we'll get away together yet."

One of the most complicated sets in town was built at Warners for "Hero For A Day" in which Charles Grapewin plays a Civil War veteran to bring about the downfall of a criminal gang.

For one scene, Emmet Vogen, playing a private detective, is killed by a bomb placed in his automobile. The blast, caused by a little bit of black powder, must wreck the garage. This means that Hollywood calls "breakaway" construction. The garage is put together in pieces and when the blast comes prop men pull it apart with invisible wires. It requires expert timing for realism.

but if you know anything about jigsaw puzzles you acquire the knack after a while.

With the smuggling investigation in progress in New York, Universal is fortunate in having a picture about smuggling before the camera. It's called "Key Woman." There is no similarity in plot to the New York case. Irene Hervey plays an agent for the G-men who wins the confidence of the gang leader, Walter Woolf King, who ultimately arranges with Joe Keating, a henchman, to bump off the beautiful spy. The hero, Preston Foster, however, arrives in time to belt Keating out of the picture with one blow of his mighty fists. In the movies the heroes always seem to arrive on time with mighty fists.

District Firemen Board Of Control Meeting Saturday

Formative Plans For Big Convention Next August In This City Are Laid

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 23.—Members of the Ellwood City volunteer fire department were general hosts to the board of control of the Western Pennsylvania Firemen's association for their initial meeting of the year on Saturday evening at the firemen's hall on Sixth street.

President McGurk of Swissvale presided and presented A. W. Richards of the Ellwood department, who introduced Chamber of Commerce Secretary Denny Schill and Elmer Greenham, chairman of the fire and water committee of the Ellwood council. Both Mr. Schill and Mr. Greenham welcomed the firemen and pledged the full support of the organizations they represented in aiding with the convention to be held in this city the first week of August.

Committees for the year were announced and arrangements made to have the committee meet in the near future. Formative convention plans were outlined.

Some 250 firemen attended the meeting, representing practically all of the 34 counties included in the district, and after the business session partook of appetizing refreshments served by the Ellwood hosts. Plans for the meeting in February will be announced.

New Legislative Plan Presented

Chamber Of Commerce To Follow New Policy During Coming Year

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 23.—The Ellwood City Chamber of Commerce legislative committee will adopt a new policy this coming year on state legislation that is being acted upon in Harrisburg. Tomorrow each member of the chamber will receive a complete list of the committees in the house of representatives, senate and the governor's appointees for the year 1939.

The chamber in its new policy on legislation will render service to any member who might wish to know the particulars about any bill brought up in the house of representatives or the senate.

The chamber will be able to give details on any of the 90 bills that face the house at the present time within a two-day notice.

At the present time the chamber legislative committee is very active in the auto license change bill. This bill if it goes through would change the auto registration date from the present time, January 1, to April 1. Another bill along this same line that is being introduced is that automobile licenses be purchased in each city and borough.

The chamber as a body will at no time take part in any bills of legislation unless first presented to the membership for action.

Bianco Makes Scoring Record For Shelby Loop

Thrills Largest Crowd Of Year With Accurate Shots From Every Angle

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 23.—Before the largest crowd of the year, the first half champion Hot Finish drew its first victory of the second half over the Cold Draw by a close score of 43-39 on Saturday night at the Shelby loop.

A poor showing in the third period in which the Cold Draw was outscored 16 to 6, proved to be the loser's downfall. John Sheeler led the winners with 12 points.

Led by John Bianco, one of last year's high school stars, the Italo Balbo five swamped the Office 55 to 37 in the second game, although the winners were behind four points at the half. Bianco scored 14 field goals and one foul to establish a scoring record of 29 points and almost winning the game single handed. He thrilled the crowd with accurate shots from every point on the court. Patterson led the losers with 12 points. Walter Robuck and Jimmy Gottuso, new assignees to the Balbos, adding much to their strength and the promise to be a strong second half contender.

A special double attraction has been arranged for tonight in which the Italo Balbos will play a Beaver Falls team in the preliminary game at 7:15 o'clock and the Shelby All-Stars will play the New Brighton Bakers as the main feature.

On Wednesday night the Inspection will play the Office and the two undefeated second half teams, the Hot Finish and the Cold Draw, will clash in the second game.

May Prosecute Newsprint Industry

Alleged Monopolistic Practices Are Being Probed By Government

By ERIC FRIEDHEIM
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Prosecution of the newsprint industry for alleged monopolistic practices, became a distinct possibility today, as justice department investigators scrutinized the financial affairs of leading producers and marketers.

At the same time, the federal government continued its efforts to assist in the development of paper manufacturers utilizing pinewood growing in southern states.

A voluminous report on operations of newsprint manufacturing and distributing methods, and of the details surrounding price fixing, was transmitted to Attorney General Frank Murphy a week ago by the Federal Trade Commission.

To Probe Deeper
On the basis of the commission's findings, justice officials have decided to go deeper into the operations of this industry which sold approximately 3,404,938 tons of newsprint in the United States last year.

The prevailing price per ton currently is $50 although the commerce department reported several mills have been retailing newsprint for about $48 per ton.

During the past year, the justice department has received a large number of complaints charging the newsprint industry with anti-trust violations. Former Attorney General Homer S. Cummings requested the trade commission to make a preliminary investigation.

Specifically, the department is seeking to determine if the industry has violated a 1917 court decree which prohibited price-fixing.

About 75 Per Cent Imported
Department officials revealed that conferences are scheduled this week to ascertain how far this government's jurisdiction goes in respect to the marketing of imported newsprint.

At present, about 75 per cent of the newsprint used in the United States is imported, with Canada supplying the major portion.

Meanwhile, RFC officials reiterated their desire to make loans to reputable enterprises engaging in development of the southern pine forests.

The department of agriculture is proceeding with experiments on use of southern pine for paper. These experiments are being carried on at the department's wood research laboratory at Madison, Wis.

Recently the RFC made a $3,400,000 loan to a Texas lumber company which is utilizing southern pine. Corporation Chairman Jesse Jones has invited inquiries regarding loans for this project.

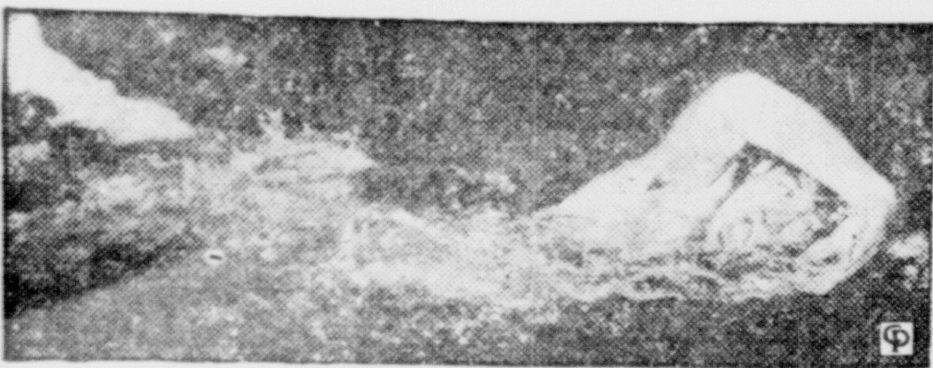

A careful analysis of the Bible shows it contains 3,566,430 letters, 810,697 words, 31,175 verses, 1,159 chapters and 63 books. The word "and" occurs no less than 46,627 times.

Time Now Here To Assist Wild Life

Put Out Some Kind Of Food To Keep Wild Life From Starving

Now is the time for all people to come to the aid of wild life which needs assistance and the person who immediately puts out some kind of food for wild life will be not only aiding wild life but also themselves if they are hunters.

The heavy snowfalls have covered the ground and birds are suffering. And when one speaks of birds it includes the sparrow, cardinal, ring-neck, quail and other wing life. Rabbits and other animals must also be helped.

One may build a shelter and place grain, apples etc. in it. Another way is to brush the snow away from the ground. The wild life will find a way to discover the food and this may go far to help save their lives.

There are some birds which do not live on insects and need suet to warm their little bodies. Many persons in the city have secured pieces of suet and have tied the chunk firmly to trees. The birds are seen pecking at it.

Rambling Around World Of Sports

Sport chatter.... Some 600 excited fans got quite a kick out of the Alumni-New Castle high boxing game. The stars of former years still have plenty on the ball. Is it true that Paul "Lefty" Minner, New Wilmington's flashy sphere handler, has already received an offer from one of the colleges in the country? Tommy Wilkins of 332 Neshannock avenue, a former New York state resident, was one of the leading players in the Western Suffolk baseball circuit last season. Wilkins, a left fielder, hit a cool 342 last season. He also spanked out 11 homers, one of the circuit's best.

He will likely join one of the district teams. Bert Evans at bat.... In the sporting page of The News of January 17, there appeared a statement that the Epworth M. E. church team of the New Castle Church league, having won the championship two years, was out to accomplish what no other team in the league has done before, win three straight titles. The Central Christians accomplished this feat in the seasons of 1927-29 (undefeated), 1929-29 (undefeated), 1929-29 (losing one game). Fifty-five games won and one lost, this includes a string of 43 consecutive games won. Wishing the league continued success, Truly yours, Bert Evans, Central Christians.

A paragraph of sport facts.... When Jack Dempsey stepped into the ring for his battle with Jess Willard at Toledo the Manassas Mauler tipped the beams at a little better than 190 pounds. Johnny Woodruff, Pitt university's cinder path artist, has not dropped a titler race since copping the 1936 Olympic 800-meter tryouts. Woodruff is said to have the most unorthodox style in the sport.... The New York university basketball team of 1933-34 was the first metropolitan aggregation to go through the season in 30 years.... Long Island U duplicated the feat in 35-33.

Odds and ends.... Leo Burck has been boxing coach at Penn State for 17 years. During his pugilistic career, he fought George Chip, middleweight champ.... "Tarzan" Taylor, Marquette university's line coach, needs but three more months of study to be ordained a Methodist minister. With the addition of Charley Keller to the Yankee outfield, the champs of baseball are expected to have even more power in their war clubs than before. Oh those pitchers! Keller has been the hottest thing in the International league for the past few seasons in a Newark monkey suit.

O. K. if it works.... Like the country's array of scientists, coaches of collegiate aggregations are always experimenting in the hope of discovering a solution for their numerous woes.... Neman H. Ertel, commander of Wayne university's varsity basketball team, believes in the ether, at least he has fallen for the one which says that music prevents an athlete from fighting the ball.... Hevjs studied the theory from more angles than in a geometry book, Coach Ertel went to work, installing a radio in the gymnasium.... Now his canteen rehearse while the music goes on.... P. S. Varsity players rank highly as dancers.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Boxing's first All-Colored heavyweight championship fight will take place next Wednesday night in New York city when Jolting Joe Louis, world's heavyweight champ defends his crown against John Henry Lewis, champion of the light-heavyweights. The fighters are scheduled to go 15 rounds but few give Lewis much of a chance against Shufflin' Joe.

It will be Louis' first fight since he devastated Max Schmeling in 2:04 in the first round in New York last June. Joe's bank-roll goes to such proportions at that time he would have been practically fighting benevolence for Uncle Sam's Income Tax department if he engaged in any more battles. Realizing this Joe retired until John Henry Lewis mentors signed him for Wednesday night's joust.

In Lewis Joe will be opposing a fighter said to be not as good as he was two years ago. There is no questioning that Lewis is the best boxer in the heavier ranks of today but the boys with an ear to the ground says his legs are going. When a fighter's under-pinning is no longer as strong as those of a gladiator, the eighth inning is coming up. Further, Lewis is not a terrific puncher.

Some say the fight may end quickly. Others believe Lewis will quickly and easily to box at long range and skip hither and yon. These folks say he may last about seven rounds. Being that the Lewis-Louis fight is the first All-Colored heavyweight titular brawl the gate receipts may be lucrative yet not up to the amount a battle between Louis and some worthwhile Caucasian would attract.

SUMMIT, N. J., Jan. 23.—If J. Mussolini's Control of British Life-Line Up to Franco

This map illustrates Mussolini's plan to make of the Mediterranean sea a vast "Italian lake". Great Britain, with her precious "Life Line of Empire" is on the anxious seat. Victory for General Francisco Franco and his insurgents in Spain would be the determining factor. If Franco wins, Italy will have Spain and Spanish Morocco as a base to imperil not only Britain's "life line" but also France's route to her African colonies. Artist has listed as "toll gate" places fortified by Mussolini, with aid of Hitler, to force showdown with Great Britain and France. (Central Press)

FROM ME TO YOU
By MESEALL

Looking over last week's papers... we came to a piece that we had marked for a time, when things were not too busy and we might study a little. It is a report on "How Divisions Raised $58,305 For Chest". Looking down over the figures we were rather amused and disgusted with the total of some divisions. The man who works hard for his money and pays his taxes with regularity and sometimes he is not so regular... gives to the chest more freely than the Government official who is making a good wage and exempt from income taxes. Read over the divisions and think for yourself. We are not trying to criticize the chest, it's just some people in town.

We have been trying to find out the past few days, some facts about the emblems of the Republicans and Democratic parties. When did the Elephant replace the Coo for the Republican party and when did the Jack Ass replace the Rooster for the Democratic party? Why did this all happen? If any of you oldtimers can give authentic information we would appreciate same.

* * *

A fellow came in the other day and flopped down in a chair... all worn out... his spirit somewhat dimmed and his eyes began to ask... "What ails my good man (or words to that effect)..." Well he said in his rather comical but tired droll, "I have been out collecting for three weeks and at last I've come to a great conclusion... people haven't much veracity anymore." Well, now my friends that is a question that can be debated to great lengths... so we will leave you have that thought in mind... we would like to tell what we know about some people in regards to their credit.

Dual Unionism Becomes Fact In Auto Industry

(BULLETIN)

(International News Service) DETROIT, Jan. 23.—Dual unionism became a fact in the automobile industry today as the 15 officers suspended from the United Automobile Workers Union by President Homer Martin elected their own "president."

The suspended officers elected R. J. Thomas, who was a vice president under Martin, as president of the U. A. W.

They previously had "suspended" Martin and ordered him to face an impeachment trial.

The officers, all members of the international executive board, also suspended the four board members loyal to Martin.

Organization of the anti-Martin forces into a formal union left the CIO's auto workers union definitely split into two organized groups.

It also lent credence to reports the anti-Martin group intends to carry to court its fight to regain possession of the international headquarters and records, now held by Martin.

TEN SURVIVORS OF PLANE CRASH NEAR NEW YORK

guard cutters concentrated in the Atlantic where the helpless Cavalier, its four engines crippled by ice, sank and crashed within 10 minutes while only about 300 miles out to sea on a regular flight to Bermuda.

Latest radio advices from Capt. Frank Spurr of the Baytown indicated the survivors had weathered their ordeal well. Police cars and motorcycles will rush them to a hospital when the Baytown drops anchor. Originally scheduled to reach New York last night, the Baytown was delayed by adverse winds which greatly reduced its speed and delayed its arrival.

Five Women Among Survivors

Five women, two of whom had watched their husbands sink from sight, and five men comprised the survivors. Four were crew members and six passengers.

The survivors were: Passengers—Mrs. Donald Miller, Lincoln, Neb.; Charles M. Talbot, Brookline, Mass.; Miss Nellie Tucker Smith, Pembroke, Bermuda; Mrs. J. Gordon Noakes, Malba, N. Y.; Mrs. Edna Watson, Bermuda; and Mrs. George Ingham, Hamilton, Bermuda.

Crew members—M. R. Alderson, captain; Neil Richardson, first officer; Patrick Chapman, radio officer, and David Williams, steward.

The missing were: Donald Miller, husband of Mrs. Miller; J. Gordon Noakes, husband of Mrs. Noakes, and Robert Spence, steward.

Capt. Anderson was reported in the most serious condition from exposure and shock but was expected to recover.

Some of the others were believed to have suffered bruises and cuts when the 19-ton flying boat struck the water with terrific force at 1:12 p. m. Saturday. Its passengers had no time to adjust their life belts as the ocean poured into the shattered wreckage and sent it quickly to the bottom.

"S. O. S." Dispatched

First inkling the Cavalier was in trouble came at 12:33 p. m. New York time Saturday when it reported by radio it was running into "bad weather and might be forced to land. At 12:57 it dispatched its "S. O. S.". Two minutes later it reported all engines failing because of ice at an altitude of 1,500 feet and a forced landing imminent. At 1:07 the heroic crew reported two engines were back in the running. Finally, at 1:12, the Cavalier reported it was landing with the ignition switch out and a minute later it was sinking.

The two-score words which gave a terse account of the first tragedy of its kind in the north Atlantic sent a great concentration of rescue ships to the aid of the victims.

Capt. Spurr of the Standard Oil tanker, himself the descendant of an old Nova Scotia seafaring family, reported the rescue to his superiors in clipped phrases by radio:

Hear Voices

"While proceeding to one of the positions given by radio of the lost plane at 10:30 p. m., voices of survivors were heard calling. No. 1 lifeboat, in charge of Chief Officer Olof Anderson, found survivors floating in rubber life belts and took them into lifeboats bringing them alongside where they were safely taken on board. All survivors are able to travel by motorcar. Five men and five women require overcoats, shoes and trousers for temporary transfer."

After this each survivor was permitted to send a one-word message—"safe"—to anxious families and the radio was then closed for all except official business.

When the $200,000 flying boat fell it had covered less than half the distance to Bermuda. Its messages sent ships and airplanes to the rescue but they sped into heavy weather that forced many to turn back.

Daylight had long since turned into darkness when the Baytown first arrived near the floating survivors. The tanker cast its huge searchlight over the ocean but was unable to locate the bobbing survivors. They screamed and yelled in unison but their shouts failed to reach lookouts on the ship above the roar of the wind and the crash of the waves.

And as the Baytown and its lights faded into the distance, the hopes of the 10 hapless victims sank into deep despair.

Rescue Boat Returns

Not until an hour later did the Baytown return and then two men among the crowd of 10 abandoned their hold on the lifebelts and swam towards the tanker, screaming in a final desperate attempt to make themselves heard. They were successful. A lifeboat was lowered in the heavy seas but it was after 11 p. m. when it reached the survivors.

As the rescue operations were completed the Coast Guard Cutter Champlain in command of Capt. Raymond T. McElligott, arrived on the scene and stood by. The Baytown sent out a call for a physician. The U. S. S. Erie, with a full medical complement, was drawing near but meanwhile Lieut. Phil Short and a pharmacist's mate, completed the hazardous task of boarding the tanker in mid-ocean. First aid was administered to the 10 victims.

So exhausted were the survivors by their ordeal they could give only vague and incoherent accounts of what had transpired. Later, as they grew calmer, all said they were certain they had seen the three missing men gradually let go of their life preservers and sink from sight.

From Capt. McElligott's conversations with the survivors, it was evident they made a quick grab for the rubber seats and backrests of the plane chairs which are inflated and also serve as life preservers in emergencies. The plane "opened and sank" when it struck the water, he said.

PITTSBURGH GIRL SWALLOWS POISON

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 23.—Slipping away from the bright lights and laughter of a social dance, a 19-year-old girl identified as Bernice Myslawic, walked into a nearby room and swallowed poison last night, police reported today.

She was taken to Ohio Valley hospital where attaches refused to comment on her condition. Screams of two girls who noticed her drinking the poison attracted the attention of other dancers who rushed the girl to a physician's office, police said.

Heavy Liquidation Of Day Is Traced To Foreign Sources

By LESLIE GOULD International News Service Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—The stock market cracked one to five points today in one of the worst breaks in recent months, as heavy selling was carried over from Saturday's sharp reaction.

Much of the liquidation was traced to foreign sources, particularly in London. Principal markets abroad suffered substantial declines prior to the New York opening, including Amsterdam, Paris and London.

Nervousness over the general European outlook continued the prime depressing influence on the market. All sorts of rumors of Germany's economic status were on the cables, growing out of the ousting last week of Dr. Hjalmar Schacht from the Reichsbank presidency.

Steels, chemicals, building shares, electrical equipments, motors, rails and blue-chips suffered the widest losses.

Johns-Manville tumbled more than five points before meeting support, with Westinghouse Electric losing about as much. Breaks of four or more points were shown by DuPont and U. S. Gypsum. U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler and Montgomery Ward fell three or more.

Among those to drop two or more were Goodyear, U. S. Rubber, Santa Fe, Union Pacific, Douglas Aircraft, Libbey-Owens-Ford, Union Carbide and American Smelting.

Troop In Need Of Several Men

Have Opening For Seven Men Who Can Meet Required Qualifications

INDOOR RANGE
HAS BEEN BUILT

With the completion and occupancy of the new armory, affairs are going forward smoothly with Troop K, 102nd Cavalry, P.N.G., Capt. George F. Seyffert, the commanding officer, stated today, and new equipment is gradually being added to facilitate the efficiency of the troop.

Chief among these is the new indoor rifle and pistol range for 22 calibre firing, which has just been completed under the direction of Corp. Harold J. Cleaver, who has been appointed range supervisor. The work on the range was supervised by Lieut. Raymond F. Atkinson. The troop has a new 22 calibre automatic pistol, competition with which has caused grief to some, and elation to others who were fortunate enough to score enough points to qualify for the bottle of pop awarded on the highest score.

Troop K is in need of seven men to fill vacancies caused by the expiration of enlistment and resignations. Applicants must be five feet seven inches in height and have at least two years of high school education, with a full four years preferable. The troop is particularly in need of a good gubler, whose position is above the rank and file of the ordinary trooper, Capt. Seyffert states.

The quarterly payroll of the troop has just been received and disbursed. It is interesting to note that the quarterly payroll of the troop amounts to approximately $1-100, practically all of which is spent in Lawrence county.

The troop now has its full quota of mounts, 32 in all. The eight new horses recently received have completely recovered from illness incident to shipment and are full of fun and friskiness. They are above the average in new horses, Capt. Seyffert states, and on the whole are believed to be above the average of those received by the other troops, which is just a matter of luck in the drawing.

DAILY DOZEN

(From the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania)

"Shut your mouth!"
That's not sass—but safety.
People should breathe through their noses.

The primary function of the nose is smelling.

The nose also catches dust and germs and drains the sinuses. It supplies heat and moisture to the air breathed in.

Nasal obstruction makes mouth breathing necessary.

A short period of mouth breathing does little harm.

It may become a bad habit, and may lead to unhappy results. Such as head colds, sinus disease, deafness, ear disorders.

Civilized man is an open-mouthed creature.

He should keep his mouth shut.

Boy Scout Court Of Honor For Month Is Scheduled For Friday Night

Boy Scouts in the New Castle District, who will be up before the January Court of Honor, will be reviewed in their first class work at the Review Board meeting Tuesday evening. The meeting will begin at 7:30 o'clock and will be held in the Scout Office.

Friday evening, of this week, the Court of Honor will take place. This will be in the City Hall at 8 o'clock, and Scouts will be advanced in rank and awarded Merit Badges.

On November 13, 1897, the New York city hall was considered unsafe for a gathering and the council was directed to meet "next door."

To Start Prison
Term For Arson

BEAVER, Pa., Jan. 23.—Wilbert McFarland, 17, of Beaver Falls, married and the father of a child, will be taken to the Western Penitentiary today, where he will begin a sentence of from five to ten years.

McFarland told Judge Frank E. Reader Saturday, when arraigned on three charges of arson, that he set fire to three buildings "because he liked to see the firemen turn out and enjoy the excitement of the blaze."

One fire, which McFarland admitted starting, resulted in the suspension of Fire Chief Charles Cooper, who could not leave a bingo game, and also the suspension of Assistant Fire Chief William Newell, who wrecked the new pump in a collision with another car.

Four hundred years before the Christian era tooth-picks were used to clean the teeth. The sticks were made of fresh twigs from trees.

CLAIMS HE WAS ROBBED OF $4.00

Saturday, near the Pennsylvania Engineering Works in South Jefferson street according to a report made to police. Clark claims one of the colored men pointed a revolver at him. One colored man, he reported was between 25 and 30 years of age and wore a cap and the other was between 22 and 33 years of age and wore a wool skull cap.
